

BEST PUBLIC SPACE

Ashuelot River Park

Photos by Gabe Shakour

Beautiful Ashuelot River Park was once again voted the region's favorite public space. This 157 acre park includes the Ashuelot River and adjoining wetlands. It can be accessed off West Street in Keene and it features a gazebo, river access, a bridge, gardens, and more. The park is maintained by volunteers and the City of Keene.

Keene Parks and Recreation Department. A path extends from the park and connects to the Keene Bike Trails. This trail follows the river. It's popular with runners, bikers, mothers with their little ones, and dog walkers. The park creates an oasis and a connection to the natural world, right in the center of Keene.
