Association Seeks Nominations For The Banker Of The Year

The New Hampshire Bankers Association (NHBA) is seeking nominations for its "2017 Community Banker of the Year Award." Any New Hampshire bank employee and respected community leader who has gone above and beyond in making a significant impact in their community is eligible.

"We are asking our small business owners, community members, and leaders to think about a member of the banking industry who has gone above and beyond for their community," Christiana Thornton, NHBA president/CEO explained. "We rely on their feedback to recognize and honor one individual who has led by example, who has put their community first, and whose dedication has gone beyond what is expected of them."

Nomination letters should include an outline of the individual's recent activities along with achievements, and should be accompanied by at least one letter of recommendation from a community or civic organization.

The deadline for nominations is Friday, June 23rd. Nomination letters should be mailed to the New Hampshire Bankers Association, c/o Sue McKee, P.O. Box 2586, Concord, NH 03302-2586, or via email to smckee@nhbankers.com.

Mascoma Financial Advisors, most recently working out of its Keene office. Prior to that, he managed the investment program for Lake Sunapee Bank out of its Peterborough and New London offices. In addition to holding FINRA licenses 7, 63, 66, and 24, Beauregard also has his Life, Accident, and Health Insurance license.

"We're excited to have Kevin join the SBWWM team as he espouses the values of our community and our bank," says Gregg Tewksbury, president and CEO of the Savings Bank of Walpole.

"In addition to his investing expertise, Kevin knows how important it is for a community-focused business to always do the right thing for its customers. He has an impeccable reputation for placing integrity above all else and focusing on the best interests of his clients and building relationships that are based on trust and respect."
