Local Folks Of Long Ago

The Improved Order of Red Men is the nation's oldest patriotic fraternal organization of American origin and is descended from the Sons of Liberty. Their rituals and regalia are modeled after those assumed by white men of the era to be used by Native Americans. Despite the name, the order was formed solely by, and for, white men. Circa 1900.

In The 1960s

The population of Keene in 1960 had grown to 17,527. The land connected to the Otter Brook dam was dedicated as a state park, and Keene High School moved to West Street while the Junior High moved to Washington Street. This was also the first year that Keene High School offered summer school.

Keene joined the national air raid warning system in 1962, becoming one of the first 500 American cities to do so.

On November 22, 1963 the assassination of John F. Kennedy shocked the entire world. It was a time of mourning, and special services were held in area churches.

Also in Keene in the year 1962, the national finals of the American Legion Little League World Series were played. There were 23,000 spectators, including baseball great Ted Williams.
