Our Readers' Voices: Unveiling Your Favorites

Welcome to the 2023 Best of Monadnock Readers' Choice Awards! We are delighted to announce the winners of the Gold, Silver, and Bronze categories in the original Readers' Choice Poll in the region. The winners have been chosen through voting by you and fellow readers of The Monadnock Shopper News.

As your local community paper, it holds immense importance for us to acknowledge the individuals, businesses, and organizations that our readers hold dear. Our vibrant community continually achieves great successes, and now, more than ever, it is crucial to support local establishments and foster community spirit.

This annual contest has seen some of our winners dating back to our very first poll in 2006. It is always fun to discover new names among the results, and we are consistently delighted to see familiar favorites are still number one in the minds of customers.

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to all the honorees of this year's voting, and we extend a sincere thank you to all the readers who took the time to make their voices heard.

This magazine contains the comprehensive list of all the winners, with no tie-breakers, resulting in multiple winners in some categories. We hope you find the annual Readers' Choice Awards list as valuable and fascinating as we did, and we look forward to your continued engagement with our newspaper.

All valid online ballots were entered into a drawing for restaurant gift certificates. The winners are Pamela Sweeney, Michelle Connor, Deb Murray, Lara Larson and Sarah Jarrell.

On The Cover: This year, we dedicate the cover to honoring the Gold, Silver, and Bronze winners for Favorite Public Spaces. Congratulations to Central Square, Ashuelot River Park, and the Keene Public Library, all in Keene.

BEST TEACHER

Taking first place under the category of "Teacher" in the 2023 Best of Monadnock Readers' Choice poll goes to Keene High School English Teacher Jonathan Perry.

For 31 years, Perry has made teaching his life's work, not only as an English teacher, but as a head coach at the high school, a coach for Keene State College summer basketball camp, and teaching for Keene Community Education.

He says that he is fortunate to have his "hat in so many different rings" when it comes to local youth, and was elated, but humbled, when he got the news of his award.

"Teaching really can't be measured with numbers, it's much more long-term than that," he says. "I come in contact with a lot of students. These kids just need an adult presence in their lives, a roll model, and a friendly connection."

Perry grew up in Keene – a product of the area's school system. His wife, Shannon, is an art teacher at Keene High School; they have two children.

BEST ARTIST

Fine Artist/Art Educator Alicia Drakiotes of Alicia Drakiotes Studio in Marlborough took the gold "Artist" award in the 2023 Best of Monadnock Readers' Choice Awards poll. This local fine artist is no newcomer to this prestigious award as she also placed first in the 2019 poll, silver in 2020, and bronze in 2021.

Plein air painting (painting outside) is what Drakiotes is most drawn to; she works with oils and oils over pastels. Her love for the outdoors is incorporated into her paintings – landscapes, houses and barns that have seen better days, old rusting cars and trucks, and animals.

Drakiotes has been involved in the Dublin Art Tour for years, coordinates artists' exhibits at the Historical Society of Cheshire County, and has volunteered to work with artists in July at Cathedral of the Pines. During the spring and fall she gives (very affordable) art classes – open to the public – at Keene Senior Center on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

WEBSITE DEVELOPER

WEBSITE HOSTING

We're sure you already know it's increasingly difficult sorting the good companies from the bad ones on the Internet.

There are still ways to find the best, reliable web development companies.

We've compiled this recommended checklist as a starting point.

The order these are in isn't necessarily important since ALL the points are very important!

Check to see if the web development company:

- ✓ will ensure that YOU own your website when it's paid for
- ✓ is legitimately registered to do business within its state: (NH is <https://quickstart.sos.nh.gov/online/Account/LandingPage>)
- ✓ has been in business for at least 10 years
- ✓ has several or more people
- ✓ carries workers' compensation on its employees
- ✓ carries liability insurance
- ✓ maintains a committed presence in networking groups
- ✓ is accredited and has a good rating with the Better Business Bureau: (<https://BBB.org>)
- ✓ understands your community and reciprocates by referring business to you
- ✓ has a phone contact where one can at least leave messages
- ✓ has an email contact where one can send information
- ✓ provides automatic site updates at no additional ongoing charge
- ✓ backs up websites every night for at least a month
- ✓ provides website encryption (SSL) at no additional ongoing charge
- ✓ does not require hosting or domain contracts
- ✓ does not overcharge you by selling inflated monthly maintenance plans
- ✓ provides partial hour web work billing (9 minutes work charged 9/60 of hourly rate)
- ✓ can respond to most maintenance requests in 3-4 days
- ✓ has general familiarity with trademark and copyright issues
- ✓ is proficient with WordPress through experience and training

Check out <https://CWCORNER.com> where we post tips and info on the above regularly.

We have moved thousands of websites to CharlesWorks - mostly through word of mouth referrals through other satisfied web clients.

Let us take care of YOUR web needs!
